Maximize Corporate Matching

What is Corporate Matching?

- Corporate matching happens when companies financially match the donations that their employees make to nonprofits.
- An employee must notify their employer after the gift has been made, and requests a matching gift form from their employer, who then makes a matched gift.
- Most companies have a corporate matching program, and will match an employee's donation dollar for dollar, or more.

How do I know if my company has a match giving program?

1. Use this webpage (<https://ww2.matchinggifts.com/search/unh>) to see if your company is registered for corporate matching.
 - Follow the steps to share with your employer.
2. You can also make your donation directly to the Operation Holiday Impact giving link, found on our website: operationimpact.co
 - You will see an option for matching to verify your work email and/or company is eligible for matching.
 - If so, a notification will be emailed to you for next steps in order to complete match request.

Make your Holiday Impact,

We at Operation Impact are here to impact people by mobilizing and developing our partners to serve the underprivileged locally, nationally and globally. We develop strategic partners that are highly vetted and provide them with resources to their current needs through volunteers, financial support and awareness.

Our annual Holiday initiative continues our mission to be of service to others. We have raised almost three quarters of a million dollars in the last 5 years by providing gifts and items to children and parents in need at local community shelters nationwide and globally. We give them a holiday experience they would not otherwise have.

Join us for this year's national and global effort to support the local needs of children and parents in raising $275,000. Every $200 sponsors 1 child.

If you would like to donate, you can do so by visiting <https://bit.ly/ohi2022>

We appreciate your contribution towards our mission.

With gratitude,

Mike Signorelli

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

Sincerely,
